News

Our Church is still open, just in different ways... Did you know? Even with impaired eyesight problems or a lack of internet access, you can still phone in on a landline telephone no. to listen in to our new Sunday Zoom Service at 10:30am (since 10th Jan). If you are new or hesitant, don't worry, just contact us for the Zoom link, it is very encouraging to see numbers grow weekly!

The weekly pattern of services:

Sun from 8am - Said Eucharist
available on the website
9:15am - Zoom YACC
available via Zoom
10:30am - Zoom Service
available via Zoom

Tue 9pm - Service of Compline

The Said Eucharist continues to be pre-recorded for video web-streaming from 8am onwards on Sundays.

URGENT NEED FOR A PCC Secretary!!!

If you feel you may be able to help (you do not need to be a PCC member already), please do talk to Rev'd Jenny.

URGENT: Please help us, DO NOT SHARE out any Zoom links yourself, please let us know asap and we'll do it directly. Email:

admin@stfranciswgc.org.uk
curate@stfranciswgc.org.uk children@stfranciswgc.org.uk
vicar@stfranciswgc.org.uk

This is very important to enable us to safeguard the attendance of all our parishioners online.

And please identify yourselves - FAMILY NAME only during your login, not just a generic name; 'ipad' or 'myphone' or anything else which does not help us to identify you. Thank you.

Welcome

Third Sunday of Epiphany

Collect

Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Genesis 14: 17-20

After Abram's return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).
And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High.
He blessed him and said, 'Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!' And Abram gave him one-tenth of everything.

Revelation 19: 6-10

I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty thunder-peals, crying out, 'Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.
Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his bride has made herself ready; to her it has been granted to be clothed with fine linen, bright and pure' - for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.
And the angel said to me, 'Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.' And he said to me, 'These are true words of God.'
Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, 'You must not do that! I am a fellow-servant with you and your comrades who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.'

John 2: 1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.
When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.'
And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.'
His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.'
Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.
Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim.
He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.'
So they took it.
When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.'
Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.
